1. Overview

This class addresses dietary ethics, particularly as it pertains to killing and eating animals. In recent decades philosophers have devoted extensive attention to questions involving animals and food ethics. Are animals harmed by death? Is it appropriate to kill them for food if done painlessly? Is locavorism a defensible dietary ethic? Is there anything wrong with artificial ingredients? The class will explore opposing views on these and other questions related to food, in a manner that assumes no background in philosophy.

2. Assessment

A Short assignment of 400 words due Friday January 20 (5%)
A 1,000-word essay due 5:00 pm Tuesday January 31 (25%)
A 1,000-word word essay due 5:00 pm Tuesday February 21 (25%)
Final cumulative exam (35%) Class participation (10%)

4. General Information
4a Office Hours

I keep both normal and electronic office hours. Drop by in person or contact me via Skype (ID: andy_lamey). I am also available immediately after class or by appointment. I am always happy to discuss any aspect of this course with you.

4b Email Policy

I am happy to reply to emails sent from UCSD email addresses. I do not reply to emails from non-UCSD addresses. Please note that there are two subjects I do not discuss by email, even if they are sent from a UCSD account. These are:

a) Requests for information about the exam that arrive in the 24-hour period immediately preceding the exam.

b) Requests to adjust your final class grade. If you have an issue with your grade please make an appointment to discuss it during my office hour next quarter.

4c Late Work

For all assignments handed in late without an extension, a five percent penalty applies for the first day of the missed deadline. After that, a penalty of two percent per day will be applied for the next thirteen calendar days after the due date (including Saturdays and Sundays). No assignment can be accepted after more than fourteen calendar days except in exceptional circumstances and in consultation with your professor. Assignments that are handed in late without an extension will be graded and returned after those that were completed on time and will not receive comments.

4d Accommodation for Disability

I am happy to provide accommodation to students with disabilities, whether physical or mental. Students requesting accommodations should provide a current Authorization for Accommodation (AFA) letter issued by the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) which is located in University Center 202 behind Center Hall. Students are required to present their AFA letters to Faculty (please make arrangements to contact me privately) and to the OSD Liaison in the department in advance so that accommodations may be arranged. Contact the OSD for further information: 858.534.4382 (phone); osd@ucsd.edu (email); disabilities.ucsd.edu (web).

4e Academic Integrity

Integrity of scholarship is essential for an academic community. The University expects that both faculty and students will honor this principle and in so doing protect the validity of University intellectual work. For students, this means that all academic work will be done by the individual to whom it is assigned, without unauthorized aid of any kind. More information about UCSD’s policy on academic integrity is available at http://senate.ucsd.edu/Operating-Procedures/Senate-Manual/appendices/2

4f Technology in the Classroom

Please note that until further notice, laptops and tablets are not permitted in lecture. Your TA will let you know what the policy is in discussion group.

4g Waitlist

Students will be admitted to this class according to their place on the waitlist.

4h Exams

All students except those with an OSD exemption are required to take the exam on the scheduled day and time.
